ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In this Jubilee Year of Mercy, Pope Francis has encouraged us to “open our eyes and see the misery of the world, the wounds of our brothers and sisters who are denied their dignity, and let us recognize that we are compelled to heed their cry for help!” (Misericordiae Vultus, [MV] no. 15).

The annual Peter’s Pence collection, which will be taken up at all Masses in the diocese next weekend, June 25-26, provides all of us with an opportunity to heed the cry for help of our brothers and sisters throughout the world by supporting the Holy Father’s charitable works. The theme of this year’s Peter’s Pence collection is Be a Witness of Charity. Our gifts to this annual Collection help the Holy Father respond to the victims of war, natural disasters, and religious persecution, as well as strengthen dioceses, religious orders, and struggling communities of faith when they need it most. Our contributions will be combined with those of our catholic brothers and sisters around the world to help Pope Francis reach out to those in need.

Please give generously to the Collection, and help the Church continue to be a witness of charity throughout the world. I also ask that you pray for the Holy Father in a special way next weekend, that God may continue to give him all the gifts he needs to serve the Church as the successor of Peter.

Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Kevin C. Rhoades
Bishop of Fort Wayne-South Bend
