FSSP Pilgrimage: Canadian Shrines:

Fr. Erik Deprey, FSSP, Pastor, St. Clements Parish, Ottawa, invites you to join him on a pilgrimage to the Canadian Catholic Shrines in Ontario and Quebec from May 6-16, 2017. These include Mt. Carmel Shrine, Niagara, Canadian Martyrs Shrine, Midland, Notre Dame Basilicas in Montreal and Quebec City, Oratory of St. Joseph (St. Andre), and Cap de Madeleine. We will also take part in the National March for Life on Parliament Hill. For more information go to our website Orbis Catholicus Travel at www.oc-travel.com or contact Susan Kotnik at susankotnik@gmail.com or call 604-465-6911.

General Reminder:

Please help keep the church a place of quiet recollection. Silence shows not only reverence for our Lord in the Bl. Sacrament, but also respectful courtesy to those who are praying. The basement is an appropriate place for conversations; and as the weather has been pleasant, outside is a preferable place to speak rather than the church. Thank you!

A Liturgical Lesson: The Symbolism of Incense

"[T]he incense first brings to mind the idea of purification: the Church recognizes that it has the particular power of banishing evil spirits. Before burning the incense on the altar at the dedication of a church, the bishop blesses it using these words: 'Bless and sanctify this incense, Thy creature, so that in smelling its perfume, all the languors, the infirmities, and the treacheries of the enemy, will flee from man, whom you have created and redeemed by the precious blood of your Son, in order that he may never be hurt by the bite of the serpent.' Incense is also used to cense the candles of Candlemas, ashes, palms, and the offerings of the Mass.

"Second the incense symbolizes the prayer which rises towards god, as in this psalm verse which the priest recites at the censuring of the Offertory: 'May my prayers rise like incense, my hands like the evening offering' (Ps. 140).

"Finally, incense is universally recognized as a form of adoration rendered to God; an adoration which is intimately linked to the idea of sacrifice: offering incense to idols during the time of antiquity constituted a sacrifice to the gods. And the Latin word thus, which signifies incense, takes its origins from the Greek verb thuo, which is sacrifice. At Mass, it is this act of adoration which brings about the censuring of the Host at the Elevation, the cross at the altar, the book of the Gospels, the priest who is alter Christus. From this same reason also, censuring is done to relics of saints, and even to the faithful, who by the baptism have become members of Christ. Let us notice that one and the same rite of censuring can have two significations: the censuring of the faithful is both a purification and an honor rendered to Christ present within them.

"[I]ncense brings to mind the celestial liturgy: 'Another angel, who had a golden censer, came and stood at the altar. A large quantity of incense was given to him to offer with the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar that stood in front of the throne; and so from the angel's hand the smoke of the incense went up in the presence of God and with it the prayers of the saints. Then the angel took the censer and filled it with the fire from the altar, which he then threw down on to the earth' (Rev. 8:3-5). What other symbol but that of this divine fire, taken from the celestial altar and thrown onto the earth, could have better expressed the relation which exists between our earthly liturgies and that of Heaven."
