A Liturgical Lesson: Advent (Latin ad-venio, to come to)

“According to present usage, Advent is a period beginning with the Sunday nearest to the feast of St. Andrew the Apostle (30 Nov.) and embracing four Sundays.

“With Advent the ecclesiastical year begins in the Western churches. During this time the faithful are admonished to prepare themselves worthily to celebrate the anniversary of the Lord’s coming into the world as the incarnate God of love; thus to make their souls fitting abodes for the Redeemer coming in Holy Communion and through grace, and thereby to make themselves ready for His final coming as Judge, at death and at the end of the world.

“To attain this object, the Church has arranged the Liturgy for this season. ... In the Masses, the intention of the Church is shown in the choice of the Epistles and Gospels. ... The Church in her liturgy takes us in spirit back to the time before the Incarnation of the Son of God, as though it were really yet to take place. Cardinal Wiseman says:

We are not dryly exhorted to profit by that blessed event, but we are daily made to sigh with the Fathers of old, ‘Send down the dew, ye heavens, from above, and let the clouds rain the Just One: let the earth be opened, and bud forth the Redeemer.’ The Collects on three of the four Sundays of that season begin with the words, ‘Lord, raise up thy power and come’ as though we feared our iniquities would prevent His being born.”

Appropriate Attire:

To dress becomingly for God and neighbor, and in keeping with the reverence due to the Blessed Sacrament, kindly refrain from wearing shorts, tee-shirts, tank-tops, revealing blouses, sleeveless or backless dresses, form-fitting clothing of any sort, or any other raffish clothing.

Do let your dresses and skirts fall below your knees. Ladies are highly encouraged to cover their heads whilst in church according to Apostolic Tradition and Sacred Scripture (see 1 Cor. 11:2-16); men are highly encouraged to wear suits and ties, or at least dress slacks and collared shirts. With due regard to time and circumstance, we encourage all to wear decorous attire befitting the sacred place and divine worship.

General Reminder:

Please help keep the church a place of quiet recollection. Silence shows not only reverence for our Lord in the Bl. Sacrament, but also respectful courtesy to those who are praying. The basement is an appropriate place for conversations; and as the weather has been pleasant, outside is a preferable place to speak rather than the church. Thank you!
