From the Apostolic Letter of Pope Leo XIII:

When the God of Mercy determined to bring about the long awaited work of mankind's renewal, He so arranged the basis and order of this work that its early beginnings would display to the world the wonderful image of a divinely constituted Family. All Men could then look upon this Family as the definitive model of domestic society, holiness and virtue. The Family at Nazareth was such a one. There, before shining forth on all peoples in the fullness of His light, the Sun of Justice was sequestered, that is, Christ, our God and Savior, along with His Virgin Mother and that most holy man Joseph, who exercised a father's responsibility towards Jesus. We can be sure that the Holy Family exemplified in the highest degree those praiseworthy qualities of ordinary home life which spring from the mutual exercise of charity, from holiness of character and from the expression of filial devotion. For the Holy Family was to be a pattern and virtue for others. And so by Providence's kindly care such a Family came into existence. Now all Christians, of whatever condition or country, can by reflecting on the Family readily find both source and stimulus for practicing every virtue.

Lord Jesus Christ, in obeying Mary and Joseph, Thou consecrated family life with admirable virtues. Grant that with the help of both of them we may learn from the example of Thy holy Family and so become a part of it for eternity. This we ask of Thee who livest and reignest with God the Father in the unity of the Holy Ghost God, world without end. Amen.
