Brown Scapular Enrollment:

On July 16, 1251, Our Lady appeared to the Carmelite Prior-General, St. Simon Stock, holding in her hand the Brown Scapular. "Receive, my beloved son," Our Lady said, "this Habit; whosoever dies clothed in this shall not suffer eternal fire!" (i.e., whosoever wears this badge of the Mother of God, not presumptuously relying on the Scapular as on a miraculous amulet, but walking in the path of God's Commandments and trustfully confiding in the goodness and power of Mary, may securely hope that Mary will, through her powerful intercession, procure for him all the necessary graces for true conversion and perseverance in good and thus preserve him from hell).

There will be an enrollment into the Confraternity of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel (the Brown Scapular) following Mass on the Feast of Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, Tuesday, July 16. Anyone who desires to grow in holiness, to pray regularly and to openly honor the Blessed Virgin may be enrolled in the Scapular.

For the enrollment, please provide your own scapular of brown woven wool. The Scapular must be rectangular in shape. The Scapulars must be worn over the shoulders in such a manner that one part hangs in front of the body and the other in the back (worn in any other way, it carries no Indulgence). It is not necessary, however, to wear the Scapular next to the skin; it may be worn over one's clothes or even enclosed in some sort of case. In the latter event, the panels of the Scapular must be actually attached to the cords which should join them so that, were the covering removed, the Scapular would be intact.

Evening for Men and Women:

There will be no meeting for women in June; the next evening will be Wednesday, July 31.

There will be no meeting for men in July; the next evening will be Monday, August 12.
