In gratitude:

On behalf of the entire parish I wish to express our sincere and deep gratitude to Darlene Chabot and the entire choir and Steve Judge and all the men of the schola for the beautiful music they provide to all the sacred ceremonies throughout the year, but most especially this most demanding of weeks. Thanks to all the fine servers of the parish who enabled the ceremonies of this Holy Week to be celebrated devoutly. Furthermore, I would like to extend my gratitude to the collection counters, the people who take care of the altar flowers, the people who clean the church, the ushers, the people who serve on the councils and committees, the people who bring food, set up and clean up after receptions and socials. My sincere gratitude to all those who pitch in and do what they can to make the parish a home to us all!

-Msgr. Fritz

Low Sunday: Divine Mercy Indulgences

A plenary indulgence is granted under the usual conditions (Sacramental Confession, Communion and prayer for the intentions of the Pope) to the faithful who, on Low Sunday, in any church or chapel, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection for a sin, even a venial sin, take part in the prayers and devotions held in honor of Divine Mercy, or who, in the presence of the Bl. Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father, and the Creed, adding a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (eg, Merciful Jesus, I trust in you!); a partial indulgence is granted to the faithful who, at least with a contrite heart, pray to the merciful Lord Jesus a legitimately approved invocation.

Appropriate Attire:

To dress becomingly for God and neighbor, and in keeping with the reverence due to the Blessed Sacrament, kindly refrain from wearing revealing blouses (décolletage), sleeveless or backless dresses, form-fitting clothing of any sort, or any other raffish clothing.

Do let your dresses and skirts fall below your knees. Ladies are highly encouraged to cover their heads whilst in church according to Apostolic Tradition and Sacred Scripture (see 1 Cor. 11:2-16); men are highly encouraged to wear suits and ties, or at least dress slacks and collared shirts. With due regard to time and circumstance, we encourage all to wear decorous attire befitting the sacred place and divine worship.

Parish Membership:

If you have been attending St. Stanislaus for at least 6 months, or are just moved into the area, and would like to be a member of the parish, and have not yet registered, please do so! Registration is very simple and quick – please contact Msgr. Fritz.

Reminder: Designated Handicap Parking

Please refrain from parking in the handicap places (this also includes street parking on the north side of Florence Ave.) unless you have a real need as there are some in the parish who rely on those spots to come and go from the church safely. Thank you!

Thursday of Easter Week: John 20:11-15

Now Mary stood outside the tomb crying. As she wept, she bent over to look into the tomb and saw two angels in white, seated where Jesus' body had been, one at the head and the other at the foot. They asked her, "Woman, why are you crying?"

"They have taken my Lord away," she said, "and I don't know where they have put him." At this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realize that it was Jesus. He asked her, "Woman, why are you crying? Who is it you are looking for?" Thinking He was the gardener, she said, "Sir, if you have carried Him away, tell me where you have put Him, and I will get Him." Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned toward Him and cried out in Aramaic, "Rabboni!" (which means "Teacher"). Jesus said, "Do not hold on to Me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. Go instead to My brothers and tell them, 'I am ascending to My Father and your Father, to My God and your God.'" Mary Magdalene went to the disciples with the news: "I have seen the Lord!" And she told them that He had said these things to her.
